GUILD ELECTIONS IN MAY!

Great Lakes Beadworkers Guild 1998 Schedule of Programs

The Guild is pleased to announce its 1998 Schedule of Programs. Some may be familiar to you, but we know you will also find some exciting new things in the schedule. We invite you to attend our general and/or board meetings, take a class, share your thoughts, ideas, and especially your beadwork! Member input to the Guild is important and welcomed.

Monthly general meetings begin at 6:30 pm on the Third Tuesday of the month (except December). Meetings are currently at the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, 814 North Campbell Road, in Royal Oak, between 11 and 12 Mile Roads. Dates and location of Guild Board meetings, to which all members are invited, are currently being reviewed and we hope to have new information finalized soon.

President's Message

Dear Fellow Guild Members,

What can I say? It's been two years since I've been your Guild President, and I have learned a lot! I have enjoyed watching and helping the Guild grow in its membership numbers, its programs, its community involvement, and above all, in the quality of its actual members - YOU! The wide spectrum of your work never ceases to amaze me and I am pleased to have shared it with you.

Thank all of you that supported me as President and as a bead store owner. Your support and encouragement has meant a lot to me and I wish you back all the same.

This isn't "goodbye", because I know that I'll be seeing many of you "beadin' around" at our meetings and special events. Or just come in to the store sometime (for those who don't know, its Beads SRO in downtown Royal Oak).

Thanks again for your support. As always...

Happy Beading!

Lisa

BEADED VESSEL CHALLENGE

The Royal Oak Clay Invitational Art Fair, June 20-21, 98

On June 20 and 21, 1998, the Great Lakes Beadworkers Guild will staff a kids art booth at the Royal Oak Clay Invitational Art Fair. The Guild will teach kids how to make beaded people. Volunteers needed, please contact the Guild at 810/977-5935 if available - thanks! The event & kids art runs from 12-3 on Saturday and Sunday. In turn, we will be allowed to promote GLBG at this booth. So we've come up with a bead challenge to Guild members in the form of a Beaded Vessel Challenge. The key characteristics/guidelines for this challenge are as follows:

- Beaded item must be vessel-shaped (i.e. bowl, vase, plate, etc.)
- Must be made/covered mostly in beads
- No bigger than a breadbox
- Must support itself or have a stand

Peoples Choice Prizes will be awarded at the July general meeting.

- First prize: $100.00
- Second prize: $75.00
- Third prize winner: $50.00

MAY 19, 1998

BEAD SWAP !!!

This month, not only will we have our meeting in the church basement, but we will also have our annual Bead Swap. This year, it's going to be a bit different. Instead of just trading beads, bring anything bead related. The books, threads, findings, and other stuff you bought and thought you'd use or had great plans for, but just never got it together. Bring all of them to the meeting and swap them for all the things other beaders bought with great plans and just never quite used! See you there!

(A peek ahead at August meeting)

In August, you'll be receiving beads for A Journey into a land whose boundaries are only those of your imagination. The only rule for this contest / challenge is that you must use ALL the beads you are given. Works will be displayed at the Guild's annual Bead Bonanza in October, 1998. "Peoples Choice" prizes will be awarded:

- First prize: $100
- Second Prize: $ 75
- Third Prize: $ 50

So get ready, get set, and GO! Come up with a great bead "anything", think of a great piece that will win you one of these prizes! Join the fun!

Also, please be sure to RENEW YOUR MEMBERSHIP at the May guild general meeting (please also note that attending the June meeting program will require a current membership card - details below).

JUNE, 1998

JOYCE SCOTT

At our June 16, 1998 meeting, we welcome Joyce Scott presenting a slide lecture to the general membership. Please note that this slide lecture is free to members, but in order to attend, MEMBERS MUST PRESENT A CURRENT (PAID) MEMBERSHIP DUES CARD. There will be a small $5.00 charge for guests.

Following the general meeting, Joyce will host a 4-day workshop known as "Fearless Beadwork II" focusing on spirals and working in three-dimensional. Supply list will be provided.

Class limited to 13 students. Class is $100 for the 4-day workshop (with breaks for lunch and/or dinner, but meals not provided). Mail In Registration Only. All registrations must bear postmarks between the dates of May 21-May 23 (the 21st is the Thursday immediately following May meeting). GREAT LAKES BEADWORKERS GUILD
BY-LAWS REVISION RECOMMENDATIONS

Please look for the special insert in this issue of the Guild newsletter, which contains revisions that are being recommended by the GLBG Board of Directors to the Great Lakes Beadworkers Guild's by-laws. Please note this insert represents only the revisions being proposed and, please note, voted upon at the May, 1998 meeting. Copies of the complete by-laws will be available for anyone's review at the general meeting.

BEAD WORKSHOP IN PARADISE III
1999 DATES

The third annual Bead Workshop in Paradise will be held in Sarasota, Florida, from February 21-24, 1999, according to Marty Montague, owner of Beads, F.O.B. and Gallery, sponsor of the event. Montague said the sessions will again be held in Sarasota's historic Pilippi Estate mansion.

Montague said the dates for the Bead Workshop in Paradise III are being announced now to allow beaders to make the earliest possible travel plans. Some 57 beaders from Canada and the U.S., including New York, Illinois, Michigan, and Texas, as well as the southeastern states, attended last February's event.

Montague said instructors are being scheduled similar in nature to Carole Wilcox Wells, who led the 1997 event, and Diane Fitzgerald, who lead the team of four teachers last February. Similarly, Montague said projects are being specified which appeal to a range of artistic taste, skill, and experience.

In addition to the four days of classes, Montague said there will be an Open House on February 20, an evening dinner, and various extra attractions and special events. Cost of the workshop will be determined soon and schedules and informational material available shortly.

A special Alert Mailing List is being compiled for interested beaders. To be put on that mailing list, write to: Bead Workshop in Paradise III - Beads, F.O.B., Inc. - 2312 Gulf Gate Drive, Sarasota, FL 34231. Or you can e-mail your address to: Beadsfob@aol.com. You may also leave contact information at (800) 425-8337. Workshop details will also be posted on the Internet at: http://www.beadsfob.com.

Call for Artists

The Birmingham Temple 26th Invitational Art Show will be held November 6-8, 1998. The show is well known throughout the area and is highly respected for the quality of work displayed.
